

Laura Kina, "Waiting — Erin O'Brien Watching the Brett Kavanaugh Supreme Court Hearing" from the Daily News series, acrylic on canvas, 18x24 in., 2018

NIU Art History, School of Art and Design, Elizabeth Allen Lecture Series presents

A Life in Between: Asian American Art and Identity

Laura Kina, professor and Vincent de Paul professor at DePaul University, The Art School, Critical Ethnic Studies and Global Asian Studies.

Laura Kina will share reflections on her interdisciplinary practice as an artist/scholar/teacher and her evolving intersectional identities as a queer mixed-race Uchinanchu American breast cancer survivor.

Wednesday, Nov. 16, 2022, 6 to 6:45 p.m.

Via Zoom.
Free and open to the public.
Register here.
go.niu.edu/Elizabeth-Allen-Lecture

Questions? Please contact Helen Nagata hnagata@niu.edu.

NORTHERN ILLINOIS UNIVERSITY

College of Visual and Performing Arts